

BRIDGING THE HIV GAP AS CIVIL SOCIETY IN THE FAST TRACK ERA; REBUILDING, RESTRATEGIZING AND RESOURCING A STRONG HIV RESPONSE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE PRESIDENTIAL FAST TRACK INITIATIVE

Civil Society refers to (and include) all those NON-GOVERNMENT & NON-INTERGOVERNMENT individuals, family members, community leaders, societal governors, health professionals, development organizations, Aid & Philanthropy agencies, PHA networks, faith communities, congregations, opinion shapers, educators, trainers and mentors in community empowerment and transformation, health care and human rights protection as well as in HIV & AIDS prevention.

A. The 5 strategic Interventions

1-Reducing and Ending Stigma, Shame, Denial, Discrimination, Inaction and Mis-action related to HIV and AIDS

Multiplying;

- 2- Safe behaviors and practices
- 3- Access and adherence to good quality medical treatment and to good nutrition;
- 4- Voluntary, routine and stigma-free counseling and testing;
- 5- Empowerment of the most hit by AIDS, poverty, ill-health, violence and early deaths.

B. The 8 constituencies: -

- i) PLHIV, Children, Young people, Women, Men, KP, Cultural Institutions, Faith sector and Cross- cutting

One PAGE VISUAL of CSO Contribution to PFTI

